

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Hon. Hala Y. Jabour

v.

Case No. 1:21-cr-00029

KEITH LAMONT NETTLES,

Defendant.

ORDER OF DETENTION

This matter is before the Court on the government's motion for pretrial detention. Defendant has been charged in a two-count Indictment. Count 1 charges him with possession with intent to distribute controlled substances, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(C) and count 2 charges defendant with felon in possession of a firearm, in violation 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1). Given the nature of the charge in Count 1, there is a statutory rebuttable presumption in favor of detention.

The government sought defendant's detention on the basis that he is a danger to the community, 18 U.S.C. § 1342(f)(1), and that he poses a significant risk of flight, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)(A). The Court conducted a hearing on March 2, 2020, at which defendant was represented by counsel.

Having considered the information presented at the hearing, the parties' oral submissions, and the information in the Pretrial Services Report, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Court finds that defendant has rebutted the statutory presumption of detention as to significant risk of flight, but not as to danger to the community. The Court alternatively finds, as explained on the record, that the government has met its burden by clear and convincing evidence that he poses a danger to the community. The Court further finds that there is no condition or combination of conditions that will ensure the appearance of defendant and the safety of the community. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General pending trial.

DONE AND ORDERED on March 2, 2021.
